

ALTERNUS ENERGY GROUP, PLC

(the “Company”)

Terms of Reference of the Audit Committee

(the “Committee”)

1. Composition

- 1.1 Members of the Committee shall be appointed by the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) in consultation with the Chairman of the Committee (the “Committee Chairman”). The Committee shall be made up of at least three members.
- 1.2 The Board shall appoint the Committee Chairman.
- 1.3 A majority of the members of the Committee shall be independent non-executive Directors and the Committee Chairman shall have recent and relevant financial experience (the “Independent Director”).
- 1.4 Only members of the Committee have the right to attend Committee meetings. However, other individuals such as the Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive, Finance Director, other Directors, and representatives from the Company’s finance function may be invited to attend all or part of any meeting as and when appropriate.
- 1.5 The external auditors will be invited to attend meetings of the Committee on a regular basis.
- 1.6 Appointments to the Committee shall be for a period of up to three years, which may be extended for two further three year periods.
- 1.7 In the absence of the Committee Chairman, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting.
- 1.8 The Company Secretary or his/her/its nominee shall act as Secretary to the Committee (the “Secretary”) and will ensure that the Committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper discussion to be given to issues.

2. Meetings of the Committee

- 2.1 The quorum necessary for the transaction of business by the Committee shall be two members to always include the Independent Director. A duly convened meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Committee.
- 2.2 The Committee shall meet at least five times a year at appropriate times in the reporting and audit cycle and otherwise as required.
- 2.3 Meetings of the Committee shall be summoned by the Secretary at the request of any of its members or at the request of external or internal auditors, if they consider it necessary.
- 2.4 Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the Committee and any other person required to attend no later than three (3) working days before the date of the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to Committee members and to other attendees as appropriate, at the same time.

2.5 The Secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all meetings of the Committee, including recording the names of those present and in attendance.

2.6 Minutes of Committee meetings shall be circulated to all members of the Board.

3. Annual General Meeting

The Committee Chairman shall attend the Company's Annual General Meeting (the "AGM") prepared to respond to any shareholder questions on the Committee's activities which fall within the competence and responsibility of the Committee.

4. Committee Responsibilities

The Committee should carry out the duties below for the Company and the wider Alternus Group as a whole, as appropriate.

4.1 Financial Reporting

- (A) The Committee shall monitor the integrity of the financial statements of the Company, including its annual and interim Reports, preliminary results' announcements, interim management statements and any other formal announcement relating to its financial performance, reviewing, and reporting to the Board on, significant financial reporting issues and judgements which they contain, having regard to the matters communicated to it by the auditor. The Committee shall also review summary financial statements, significant financial returns to regulators and any financial information contained in certain other documents, such as announcements of a price sensitive nature.
- (B) Where requested by the Board, the Committee shall provide advice on whether the annual report and accounts, taken as a whole, is fair, balanced and understandable and provides the information necessary for shareholders to assess the company's performance, business model and strategy.
- (C) The Committee shall review and challenge where necessary:
 - (1) the consistency of, and any changes to, accounting policies both on a year on year basis and across the Alternus Group;
 - (2) the methods used to account for significant or unusual transactions where different approaches are possible;
 - (3) whether the Alternus Group has followed appropriate accounting standards and made appropriate estimates and judgements, taking into account the views of the external auditor;
 - (4) the clarity and completeness of disclosure in the Company's financial reports, trading statements and results presentations and the context in which statements are made; and
 - (5) all material information presented with the financial statements, such as the operating and financial review and the corporate governance statement (insofar as it relates to the audit and risk management).

- (6) where the Committee is not satisfied with any aspect of the proposed financial reporting by the Company, it shall report its view to the Board.

4.2 Internal controls

The Committee shall:

- (A) keep under review the effectiveness of the Company's internal financial controls and internal control and risk management systems; and
- (B) review and approve the statements to be included in the annual report concerning internal controls and risk management.

4.3 Whistleblowing and fraud

The Committee shall:

- (A) review the adequacy of the Company's arrangements for its employees to raise concerns, in confidence, about possible wrongdoing in financial reporting or other matters to ensure that these arrangements allow proportionate and independent investigation of such matters and appropriate follow up action;
- (B) review the Company's procedures for detecting fraud;
- (C) review the Company's systems and controls for the prevention of bribery and receive reports on non-compliance; and
- (D) review compliance reports and keep under review the adequacy of the Company's compliance function.

4.4 Internal Audit

The Committee shall:

- (A) monitor and review the effectiveness of the Company's internal audit function in the context of the Company's overall risk management system;
- (B) consider and approve the remit of the internal audit function and ensure it has adequate resources and appropriate access to information to enable it to perform its function effectively and in accordance with the relevant professional standards and ensure the function has adequate standing and is free from management or other restrictions;
- (C) review and assess the annual internal audit plan;
- (D) review reports of the results of the internal auditors' work on a periodic basis;
- (E) review and monitor management's responsiveness to the findings and recommendations of the internal auditor; and
- (F) meet the head of internal audit at least once a year, without management being present, to discuss their remit and any issues arising from the internal audits carried out.

4.5 External Audit

The Committee shall:

- (A) consider and make recommendations to the Board, to be put to shareholders for approval at the AGM, in relation to the appointment, re-appointment and removal of the Company's external auditor. The Committee shall oversee the selection process and if an auditor resigns the Committee shall investigate the issues leading to this and decide whether any action is required;
- (B) ensure that at least once every ten years the audit services contract is put out to tender to enable the Committee to compare the quality and effectiveness of the services provided by the incumbent auditor with those of other audit firms. The Committee should ensure that all tendering firms have such access as is necessary to information and individuals during the duration of the tendering process;
- (C) oversee the relationship with the external auditor including (but not limited to):
 - (1) approval of their remuneration, whether fees for audit or non-audit services and that the level of fees is appropriate to enable an adequate audit to be conducted;
 - (2) approval of their terms of engagement, including any engagement letter issued at the start of each audit and the scope of the audit;
 - (3) assessing annually their independence and objectivity taking into account relevant professional and regulatory requirements and the relationship with the auditor as a whole, including the provision of any non-audit services;
 - (4) satisfying itself that there are no relationships (such as family, employment, investment, financial or business) between the auditor and the Company (other than in the ordinary course of business) which could adversely affect the auditor's independence and objectivity;
 - (5) agreeing with the Board a policy on the employment of former employees of the Company's auditor, then monitoring the implementation of this policy;
 - (6) monitoring the auditor's compliance with relevant ethical and professional guidance on the rotation of audit partners, the level of fees paid by the Company compared to the overall fee income of the firm, office and partner and other related requirements;
 - (7) assessing annually their qualifications, expertise and resources and the effectiveness of the audit process which shall include a report from the external auditor on their own internal quality procedures;
 - (8) seeking to ensure co-ordination with the activities of the internal audit function; and
 - (9) evaluating the risks to the quality and effectiveness of the financial reporting process and consideration of the need to include the risk of the withdrawal of the auditor from the market in that evaluation.
- (D) meet regularly with the external auditor, including once at the planning stage before the audit and once after the audit at the reporting stage. The Committee shall meet the external auditor at least once a year, without management being present, to discuss their remit and any issues arising from the audit;

- (E) review and approve the annual audit plan and ensure that it is consistent with the scope of the audit engagement having regard to the seniority, expertise and experience of the audit team;
- (F) review the findings of the audit with the external auditor. This shall include but not be limited to the following:
 - (1) a discussion of any major issues which arose during the audit;
 - (2) any accounting and audit judgements;
 - (3) levels of errors identified during the audit; and
 - (4) the effectiveness of the audit process.

The Committee shall also:

- (G) review any representation letter(s) requested by the external auditor before they are signed by management;
- (H) review the management letter and management's response to the auditor's findings and recommendations; and
- (I) develop and implement a policy on the supply of non-audit services by the external auditor to avoid any threat to auditor objectivity and independence, taking into account any relevant ethical guidance on the matter.

4.6 Reporting Responsibilities

- (A) The Chairman shall report formally to the Board on the Committee's proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities and the Committee shall also formally report to the Board on how it has discharged its responsibilities.
- (B) The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- (C) The Committee shall compile a report to shareholders on its activities to be included in the Company's Annual Report.
- (D) In compiling the reports referred to in (A) and (C), the Committee should exercise judgement in deciding which of the issues it considers in relation to the financial statements are significant, but should include at least those matters that have informed the Board's assessment of whether the company is a going concern. The report to shareholders need not repeat information disclosed elsewhere in the annual report and accounts, but could provide cross-references to that information.

4.7 General

The Committee shall:

- (A) have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the Company secretariat for assistance as required;
- (B) be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members;

- (C) give due consideration to laws and regulations;
- (D) be responsible for co-ordination of the internal and external auditors;
- (E) oversee any investigation of activities which are within its terms of reference and act as a court of the last resort; and
- (F) at least once a year, review its own performance, constitution and terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

5. Authority

The Committee is authorised:

- 5.1 to seek any information it requires from any employee of the Company in order to perform its duties;
- 5.2 to obtain, at the Company's expense, independent legal, accounting or other professional advice on any matter it believes it necessary to do so;
- 5.3 to call any employee to be questioned at a meeting of the Committee as and when required; and
- 5.4 to have the right to publish in the Company's annual report details of any issues that cannot be resolved between the Committee and the Board.

Approved by Board: 15 December 2020
